

Content Managed Ecommerce

And Enquiry website

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Content Managed Ecommerce and Enquiry website

The client has for almost 20 years specialized in the supply of heat shrinkable tubing. Now probably the largest stockist in Europe, Product can dispatch most items from stock at competitive prices. The product range varies from economical commercial sleeveings to high technology options manufactured to the relevant national and international specification requirements. All products can be certified to specification under the auspices of Companies ISO 9001:2000 approval. The client has a comprehensive cutting and marking facility and is therefore able to provide customers with bespoke kits or cut-piece requirements.

Challenges

The client needed a Content Managed Ecommerce and Enquiry website.

Solution

Mastiff provided a Comprehensive solution which had content management for all the products of that client which ranged from economical commercial sleeveings to high end customer requirements of the user. Mastiff implemented the end to end solution for the customer. This was one of the fastest implementation and provided the customer with competitive edge and also provided users market advantage.

Result

With the success of the implementation, the client base of client grew and the phase two implementation and also customization were finalized.

Domain

Application Development

Type

Web Based Solution

Technology

.NET Framework 2.0, ASP.NET 1.1, SQL Server 2005